

And he was wrapped in a garment
splattered with blood; and his name is called Word of God.

Apocalypse of St. John, 19:13

COVER: Christ Thaumaturge Heals the Paralytic. Byzantine fresco from the VIIth century basilica of St. Saba, on the Aventine, Rome. Now under glass in the reconstructed church. St. Saba was founded in the VIIth century by monks from the East.

Photo by D. Crispino.